SPORTBRIDGE

The 3300 Sportbridge: A high-style flybridge yacht with the heart of a luxury cruiser and the soul of a serious offshore fishing machine.

Nearly 13 feet of beam is put to excellent use in the cockpit - she has a large transom door and plenty of room for a full-size fighting chair. A complete rigging station with a sink, cutting board and tackle drawers is standard. Beneath the cockpit floor are twin fish boxes and there's even storage in two large gunwale lockers. She also has a large rod storage locker beneath the cabin sole.

The portside ladder leads to the large flying bridge which seats five and provides the ideal vantage point for watching the action.

Below deck, the 3300 Sportbridge has the innovative, free-flowing floorplan that has put Wellcraft cruisers on the cutting edge of design. The large main salon features a couch conversation area with a fold-up upper berth. An entertainment center even has room for an optional TV.

Other luxury accommodations, unexpected on a fishing machine of this size, include a large forward stateroom and a private head with shower, sink and vanity.

The full-sized galley comes standard with a refrigerator, stove and sink and has room to add an optional microwave and coffeemaker. If you're looking for a boat with the heart of a luxury cruiser and the soul of a real fishing machine - here she is, the 3300 Sportbridge from Wellcraft.
